PRESENTATIONS:

1. Presentation – Aberdeen Lion's Club, Mark Schlottman

Mr. Mark Schlottman of the Aberdeen Lions Club presented a check in the amount of $500.00 made from the sale of hot dogs to Mayor Bennett for the Earth Day Committee.

Mr. Schlottman, who is also member of the Aberdeen Election Board, introduced the other members of the Board: Ms. Mary Law and Ms. Gina Bantam, Chair. They presented the City Clerk, Monica Correll, who was named 2012 Maryland Municipal Clerk of the Year by her peers, with a plaque and flowers from the Election Committee in recognition of her work for the Election Board.

2. Presentation – GIS Project, Science and Math Academy

Mayor Bennett introduced Ms. Yvonne Gabriel, a research advisor who teaches GIS at the Aberdeen Science and Math Academy. She stated that her students are working with Mr. Lapinsky on some of their projects. Ms. Gabriel and a student reported on the ecosystem analysis of trees in Festival Park.

PUBLIC HEARINGS: None

PUBLIC COMMENT:

1. Mr. Paul Curtis, Windemere Drive;
Mr. Curtis expressed his various traffic safety concerns and train noise pollution. He said he received his City newsletter late. The Mayor mentioned that Aberdeen is working on its roadways but that there are State roads they are not authorized to maintain. The Mayor said that there are federal requirements regarding train and Amtrak whistles.
2. Mr. Frank Turner, Chesapeake Court;
Mr. Turner asked for a Code revision so he would be permitted to raise chickens on his property. Mayor Bennett said the matter would be taken under consideration. Mr. Turner also asked for Code clarification regarding discharging of firearms within the City because he would like to do so in order to eliminate ground hogs on his property. Councilman Garner referred him to Harford County Animal Control.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION:

1. Ordinance No. 12-O-08, Fire Hydrants Amended (For Adoption)

Mr. Miller explained that the ordinance amendment would eliminate any conflict with established policy through the Department of Public Works (DPW).

A motion was made by Councilwoman Landbeck and seconded by Councilwoman Young to approve the amendment to the ordinance, Temporary Water Using Fire Hydrants for Construction Sites. (noted below)

§ 450-4.1. Use of Hydrants.

- B. Except as provided above, fire hydrants may not be used for any purpose except by special ~~written~~ permission AS DEFINED BY THE ESTABLISHED POLICY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS. ~~of the City Manager or his/her authorized representative for the time and at the location specified. If such permission is granted, the water used shall be charged at the prevailing water rates.~~
