Community Policing / Relations

Reached out to Sara in reference to the Highland Commons event. She has not been in contact with me since speaking with Captain. I reached out again to Sarah with a social media post that I drafted and recommendations for coordination of donations of bicycles. Posted the flyer in roll call and officers' room for the Alpha and Delta Squads to stop by if time permits.
Updated a master list of community events to keep track of police presence required and or patrol units requested.
Sent out several patches to officers and civilians who requested.
Communicated with Tyler at Target. They are interested in donating to our community events. I sent him a copy of our list for 2026 and suggested candy and/or funds for our shop with a cop event.
Posted 2 OT slots for Ripken Special Event of vendors at stadium, May 8.
Reached out to Gavin to find out the anticipated headcount for the upcoming games.
Emailed Rodney the community events and all of the dates that I need him to work.
Prepared items for Earth Day event. CSS Thomas and Off. Culshaw will be working the event. The event was successful and posted to social media.
Social media posts.
Emailed 8/15/26 event for Festival Park to Ofc. Buettner so that he can oversee the requested electronic cameras.

Training

Followed up via email attempting to get information on CIT training. Jamie responded that he is working on this now and will keep Ofc. Howard apprised.
Completed training forms for MPCTC for myself and A/Cpl. Kinlaw.
Coordinating Taser training with Ofc. Buettner for the annual training.
Spring range quals have begun, and everyone is scheduled.

Personnel

Issued dog leashes to Culshaw, Cross & Zamora

Entered updated emergency contacts into Skills Manager. Forwarded all emergency contact forms to Ms. Burdette for entry into RMS.
Posted overtime details in PACE.
Issued 2 replacement fire extinguishers.
Blue team entered for Ofc. Howard for not returning Unit #227 in acceptable condition.
Assisted CID Sgt. on who was driving 2 patrol vehicles on 3/21 and 3/22.

Grants

Worked with Lt. Persuhn on the MCIN funds to plan their expenditures. OT details have been put in PACE and the official documentation forms have been forwarded to Lt. Persuhn and D/Sgt. Shoffstall.

Miscellaneous

Donation of new stuffed animals was offered to APD. I emailed all supervisors in patrol to see if there was a need for them prior to having them dropped off.
Followed up my email from last month to The Legend's apartments. Attempting to get an access fob for our supervisors for CFS.
Requested DPW repair the door to the CDS/Evidence Room. Hydraulic hinge is not operating.
Festival Park bathrooms were unsecured overnight on 4/22/26. Captain notified and an email sent to A/Sgt. Peterson to advise.
At the direction of Lt. Tomlinson, I observed an ebike demo with A/Cpl. Haddix.

Date of Incident: 04/26/26

Incident Type: Swatting Calls

Incident Report Number: 202600093544

Location of Incident: [redacted]. Aberdeen MD 21001

Reporting Officer: Sgt. Alexander

Synopsis of Events:

On April 25th and April 26th, 2026, Officers of the Aberdeen Police Department were dispatched to the [redacted]) for swatting calls. The first incident occurred on the 25th, April 2026 for an alleged person hiding in the restroom because they alleged there were gunshots at the location.

On April 26th, 2026, Officers of the Aberdeen Police Department were once again dispatched to the [redacted] for swatting calls. The Complaint was similar to the previous allegation of someone hiding in the bathroom due being afraid of someone shooting on the scene and being after them. Immediately Officer Soller, who was working secondary on the location and monitoring the Police Radio Traffic, advised his presence and that he would be investigating the location. Aberdeen Uniform Patrol Units arrived on scene. The location and the Restrooms were checked and found to be safe with no occupant nor victim present. Two additional calls were received with the same type of allegations, which were also unsubstantiated.

The On-Call CID Det. Welsh and the On-Call Commander Lt. Tomlinson were both notified.
