- Section 1: Answers to Questions Posed by Bidders
- Section 2: Revised Bid Schedule

Section 1:

Q1: Section 5 on page 11 notes that “By submitting a proposal in response to this RFP, the Consultant accepts the terms and conditions set forth herein.” Can you please confirm that the selected Consultant may negotiate certain terms and conditions with the City prior to execution of the contract? If that is the case, must such exceptions be set forth in the Consultant’s proposal?

A1: The selected consultant must accept the terms and conditions set forth in the RFP.

Q2: I am writing to inquire for clarification in regards to the three projects to be included in the submittal for the RFP No. 19-10. Do the three projects have to be completed within the past three years or can they be ongoing from the past three years?

A2: The three (3) projects must have been completed within the past three (3) years (As stated in Addendum No. 1).

Q3: Are we to include 3 projects for the prime, as well as 3 for each sub-consultant, or should we be including 3 projects total that are inclusive of sub-consultants and prime?

A3: Include three (3) previous completed projects that are inclusive of the consultant and any sub-consultants performing the work.

Section 2:

The due date for receipt of RFP No. 19-10 has been extended to: Monday, June 17, 2019 by 4:00 PM EDT.
